

television, Internet and multimedia functions.

4 Japanese illustrator Satoshi Kitamura has created the drawings for The Carnival of the Animals, a picture book based on Camille Saint-Saëns's classical music of the same name. It will be published by Walker Books on 5 December.

5 Minale Tattersfield's London office has redesigned the packaging for Italian lemon liquor drink Limoncé, rolling out across the country before Christmas. The marque's design suggests 'Lemons here' in Italian.

6 Universal Design Studio's designs for Canteen can be seen inside the new Foster and Partners development in London's Spitalfields market.

7 Campbell's is relaunching its range of condensed soups, with packaging designs by Springetts. The consultancy has also updated the brand's marque, dropping the 'condensed makes double' strapline from the logo.

8 The I Shot Norman Foster exhibition of building photographs opens on 17 November at the Architecture Foundation in London. Pictured is the Great Court at the British Museum, by Norbert Schoerner.

