FIFTEEN CORNWALL

CANTEEN

Centovini

Co-owned by NY design store Moss's curator Murray Moss, this theatrical Italian wine bar blends contemporary black 'Non' chairs and tables by Kalleemo with vintage Seventies white leather and chrome 'Birillo' bar stools by Joe Colombo for Zanotta. Concrete floors contrast with a cracked marble terrazzo bar top, while surreal Fornasetti plates deck walls. Centovini, 25 West Houston St, New York, NY 10012 (001 212 219 2113; www.centovinibar.com)

Fifteen Cornwall

Soak up bayside views at the funky Cornish outpost of Jamie Oliver's socially-aware restaurant, set in a former beach hut with interiors by Absolute Design. A graffiti mural surrounds the open kitchen zone alongside white Corian tabletops and accents of grey and hot pink for an urban-meets-coastal feel. Fifteen Cornwall, On the Beach, Watergate Bay, Newquay, Cornwall, TR10 (01637 861000; www.fifteencornwall.co.uk)

Canteen

This Modernist-influenced café opened a while back, but its sleek material mix feels totally now. Twinning pared-down pale oak with luxurious Portoro Italian marble in grainy black and white, it's by Universal Design Studio with communal tables and benches by Barber Osgerby. We're into its clean lines, cork flooring and moss-green Bute upholstery. Canteen, Unit 2 Crispin Place, Spitalfields, E1 (0845 686 1122; www.canteen.co.uk) >
